A PLACE TO TIE

I VE noticed after and a tramping Eve seen it on river and land, The thing that the most You need is a past

To be to when night is at hand, Some soft of an are hor to hold you, Some bawser that never will fall Some place you can He. Till the storm has gone by. To help you to ride out the gale.

While rapids are rouring below, Afford on the tide

Without compass or made Till down to disaster " go; A painter to the to the shore, Some place to make fast Till the tempest is past

And the waters are rolling to more So many affect on the rave

The turbulent river of life Have only their own Pion resistance alotic To conquer the trouble and strife.

DISCARDED STEEDS FIND HAVEN OF REST

tfly Associated Press;

LOS ANGELES, Cal. Ang. 18 Horses may be passing from the stage but horse lovers are still numerous. The Los Angeles city counell is convinced of that

Recently the fire department released Is old-time steeds from service, motorizing the equipment having been finally completed The council ordered the fire horses transferred to the engineering department to hand garbage wagons. Fiery-eyed women and earnestvoiced men descended on the counell in droves. They told that astounded body a few things. The garbage hauling order was rescinded and the steeds ordered turned over to the park department with instructions to work them enough to insure condition, and let them live out their days in case
